

UCA Code of Conduct

The following is an overview of the conduct and ethics which UCA expects its students practise.

1. Students of UCA will do their best to live up to Christian morals and ethical standards.
2. Students of UCA will show due respect to their parents, teachers, elders and their peers. This will be done irrespective of race, gender and creed.
3. Racism will not be tolerated.
4. Students of UCA will not be party to behaviour that is non-Christian, unpatriotic or anti-social.
5. Students of UCA will strive to uphold the honour and good name of the school and will obey all school rules and regulations, both at school and in any place or situation where the school is represented. This includes all contexts where the school uniform is worn, as well as any situation where the pupil(s) are known to be Students of UCA.
6. Students of UCA will wear the school uniform and sports attire with pride, and in full conformity with the dress code.
7. Students are to avoid the company of, or association with any person who will bring the name of the school into disrepute.
8. Students of UCA will abstain from the use or possession of any alcoholic beverage, illegal drug or nicotine product. Permission is granted to the Headmaster (or a duly appointed proxy) to conduct a search of blazers, pockets, suitcase, lockers and bags in the event of there being grounds for suspicion for the aforementioned offence. All searches will be conducted with respect to the dignity of the pupil. The Headmaster (or duly appointed proxy) is also granted permission to obtain samples for pathological laboratory analysis.
9. Students of UCA will avoid frequenting any place where disreputable persons or unseemly behaviour takes place.
10. Students of UCA will not use banned substances to enhance sporting performance.
11. Students of UCA will not use offensive or abusive language.
12. Hate speech will not be tolerated.
13. Students of UCA will participate in extra-mural activities at school, and will be expected to attend all required school functions.
14. Certain extra-mural activities sanctioned by the school will require compulsory attendance by all Students, e.g. Annual Family Fun Day, productions; Zonal sports events, Inter-House Galas, Cross Country and Athletics.
15. Students of UCA will submit to any discipline or punishment lawfully imposed by the Headmaster and/or any person designated by him.
16. Should it be necessary to establish fact, the Headmaster (or a duly appointed proxy) is granted permission to search a pupil's person and/or property. Any such search will be conducted with respect to the pupil's dignity.
17. UCA reserves the right to amend and/or alter the school rules and regulations, dress code, admissions policy and any other matters pertaining to the daily running of the school.
